

CANADIAN FOREST INDUSTRIES

All of the information, none of the cost

Canadian Forest Industries magazine keeps you on the cutting edge of the forest products sector, from harvesting, log transport and forest planning to high-tech lumber production, panel manufacturing, drying technology, scanning and optimization, and more. We also cover key industry events in Canada, the U.S. and abroad. We visit logging sites and wood products production plants bringing first hand perspectives and the latest in techniques and technology to improve your bottom line. And all for FREE if you're a qualified industry member in Canada.

For free Canadian subscriptions visit www.canadianforestindustries.ca/subscribe.html or e-mail requests to cnixon@annexweb.com. You can also fax 1-877-624-1940 requesting Canadian Forest Industries, including your name, address, and type of business.
